Whatever may be the case concerning the newspaper, the Bible school must come to the place where it will demand of its teachers a thorough knowledge (1) of the Bible, (2) of the pupil, and (3) of the principles and methods of teaching. 2. Enthusiastic. --Enthusiasm is a vital part of education. It is as contagious as the measles. If you want to know whether or not you are enthusiastic, simply observe whether the people with whom you associate get enthusiastic on the things in which you are most interested. 3. Ambitious. --It is perfectly proper for every teacher and Bible-school worker to try to excel. Make your class the best class, your department the best department, your school the best school. Try to be the best trained teacher in the school. Often the difference between success and failure is the difference...
