Rev. Dr. T. L. Cuyler says: There is a growing danger now afloat that threatens to demoralize the churches and to hamstring the installed ministry. It is the pernicious idea that a pastor is an useful article for visiting the sick, marrying the marriageable, burying the dead, consoling the troubled, and edifying the body of believers by pulpit ministrations; but if sinners are to be converted, then some evangelist must be sent for, whose professional business it is to awaken souls and lead them to Christ! I say nothing just here in condemnation of wise and godly and devoted evangelists--such as Mr. Moody and Mr. Mills; in their right place they are serving their Master nobly. The theory that revivals are chiefly the product of itinerant preachers and exhorters--that such revivals are to be engineered by itinerants...
