There had been one, it was recalled, in 1839, another in 1866, and now a third was suggested all within a period of fifty years. Would it not minister to confusion and vainglorying to have centenaries so frequently? The best reply, perhaps, to these doubts is to point to the fact and character of the Conference held last December, in Baltimore, and to add that if Methodism, brief as is its history, is pregnant with epochs as with results, no apology is necessary for the multiplication of centennial observances. The justification is in the importance of the events commemorated, each of which is charged with great historical significance. The first signalizes the rise of a movement which
