Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of Employers Liability Commission, 1912, Vol. 1 To His Excellency the Governor of Iowa and Members of the General Assembly of the State of Iowa: Your Commission appointed by the Governor under and by virtue of Chap. 205. Acts of the 34th General Assembly authorizing an investigation to be made and if deemed advisable to report a plan and recommend a bill to provide compensation for injuries sustained by employees arising out of and in course of employments, respectfully submits its report as follows: Conditions which caused the investigation. The members of the 34th General Assembly recognizing the fact that, the common law and statutory remedies are not adequate, or just either to employers or employees and that our industries of the state are a necessity and the hazards of employment great and annually increasing, and as the industries increase likewise the hazard and burdens are correspondingly increased upon the employe to such an extent, that the conscience of our people has been touched to a marked extent, and also to a knowledge that employers of labor are in constant menace from the prosecution of cases, which cost great waste of energy, time and money (much of which does not reach those to whom it properly belongs), and that many of the states are engaged in the investigation of this all important problem, deemed it advisable and necessary that Iowa should likewise join the ranks with a view of establishing a rule of law which would more nearly do justice to employers, employees and the consuming public. With that end in view the General Assembly authorized the Governor to appoint a commission of five...
