The Jungle Book, published in 1894, is a collection of tales that have delighted readers, young and old, for generations. First published as short stories in magazines in 1893 and 1894 and written during the years that Kipling lived in Vermont, the stories are most commonly seen as fables, using personified animal characters to teach moral lessons. The tales have also been interpreted as allegories commenting on the society, culture and politics of the times, and this interpretation is not difficult to find in Kipling's stories and verses. The best-known Jungle Book characters are Mowgli, the man-cub raised by wolves, and his friends and enemies, Baloo...
